SUBJECT Internship in Healthcare & Life Sciences

---

The Decision Group

Are you a Master's student or graduate and looking for a challenging internship in the Healthcare & Life Sciences industry? The Decision Group offers this opportunity!

The Decision Group is an innovative, high-end strategy consulting firm located in Amsterdam. We are looking for an enthusiastic intern (full-time) within the Healthcare sector. As an intern, you will be supervised by one of the consultants or project managers and gain practical work experience by working on consulting projects and a large healthcare event. Each year, The Decision Group organizes the Value-Based Health Care Prize, an event where initiatives looking to increase patient value (Dutch and international) compete for recognition. In addition, we can offer enthusiastic & entrepreneurial students the opportunity to conduct their thesis research on a state-of-the-art and cutting edge subject within healthcare.

Your tasks will consist of:

- i. Supporting the consultant(s), project manager(s), and business analyst(s)
- ii. Support in organizing the Value-Based Health Care Prize 2020;
- iii. Account management;
- iv. (joint) Project management;
- v. Tackling complex client problems
- vi. Making content-based presentations;
- vii. External communication.

Starting from day one, you will have the opportunity to develop yourself independently as well as in a team setting.

Your profile:

- I. Excellent skills in Dutch and English language;
- II. A relevant Bachelor's or Master's degree;
- III. Interest/affinity with Life Science & Health;
- IV. Analytically strong;
- V. A strong focus on results;
- VI. Hands-on attitude;
- VII. Excellent skills in MS Office.

What we offer

- I. Fast-learning by doing;
- II. Critical feedback (on content) to get the most out of you;
- III. Working closely together in a team with great colleagues;

- IV. Responsibility and a good level of autonomy;
- V. Informal but professional and challenging surroundings;
- VI. Everyone can build the company, you are important!
